Dear Pastor Paul,

I am writing from Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, of course a new person to introduce myself to you.

How come that I have got your address? This comes on the fact that there was a course for librarians in November 1982 which was conducted in Dar es Salaam. Librarians came all over the country to attend this course in Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules 2 (AACR 2) and of course one of them a friend of mine Mr Mbise, Melilio of the Lutheran Theological College Makumira, P.O. Box 55, Usa River, Arusha - Tanzania.

During one of our evenings me and Mbise and a few other participants to the course which in fact was organised by TIA and UNESCO were resting, Mbise happened to have one of your recorded speeches. All of us were arosed to hear The Lord's world after the tiring day session of the course.

What we listened at was your speech: Can We Measure Sin? The preaching in this cassette taught us alot. As belivers and following your preaching we were Born Again. The important were: To Love God and praise Him for his forgiveness. A true believer must have faith in Jesus who died for our sin and recognise what Jesus is doing to us everyday. Understand God and ourselves, change from ignorance, recognise where we are, and where we are going. We loved your speech.

This is how Mbise introduced me to you through your cassette recorded preaching: Can We Measure Sin? This arose my heart and desire to hear more about the Lord's word. I asked him if he could give me one or a few cassettes of your preaching! He gave me this one we had just listened to. I asked him when he went back to Arusha, if he could spare any - of course he didn't hesitate to give me your address. He told me that you are of much help to any believer who wants to hear The Lord's word and to follow Jesus.

I would love very much to hear the Lord's word through your Preaching which Mr. Mbise said that you give from time to time. I would be pleased to be one of your students who receive the preaching through those cassettes.

In the word of Lord I say Aleluya, Aleluya, Aleluya, and praise to Jesus.

I hope you will look into this matter and respond to me at your convenience.

Yours faithfully,

C.K. Masanja
